

Relations Between Britain and France in World War Two Workshop, 3 May 2017

Royal Society of Edinburgh Network 'Relations between Britain and France in World War Two'

Theatre, Institut Français d'Ecosse, Edinburgh

Convenors: Rogelia Pastor-Castro (Strathclyde) and Karine Varley (Strathclyde)

10.15 am Arrival and Welcome

10.30-12pm Panel 1 Chair: Karine Varley (Strathclyde)

Andrew Knapp (Reading) 'De Gaulle, le grand absent? Vichy, the Resistance, the Free French, and Allied bombs, 1940-45'

Morgane Barey (ENS Cachan) 'The Free French Cadets: Fighting for France from England (1940-1944)'

Lara Curtis (Massachusetts) 'Muriel Byck and Noor Inayat Khan: Special Operations Executive (SOE) Mediators between Britain and France'

12-12.30pm Tea/Coffee

12.30-1.30pm Panel 2 Chair: Karine Varley (Strathclyde)

Luc-André Brunet (OU) 'Coordinating the Franco-British Economies for the Second World War, 1939-1940'

David Foulk (Oriental Institute, Oxford) 'Creating the Caisse: Following the Franco-British Financial Intermediaries through their Social Network'

1.30-2.30pm Lunch

2.30-4pm Panel 3 Chair: Rogelia Pastor-Castro (Strathclyde)

Iain Stewart (UCL) 'French Press in Britain during the Second World War'

Charlotte Faucher (Warwick) 'French cultural policies during the Second World War in England and Scotland'

Hugh McDonnell (Edinburgh) 'Britain in the Grey Zone of François Mitterrand's Second World War'

4-4.30pm Tea/Coffee

4.30-5.30pm Panel 4 Chair: Rogelia Pastor-Castro (Strathclyde)

Rachel Chin (Exeter) 'Reframing the French Defeat: Anglo-French Continuity in June 1940'

Karine Varley (Strathclyde) 'Counter-Propaganda and Open Source Intelligence: The Role of Radio in Franco-British Relations, 1940-42'

Twitter: #UKFranceWW2